Meet New Arrivals Patrick Murck and Ron Whitworth

FHH is also pleased to announce the imminent arrival of two new members of our legal team. Ron Whitworth and Patrick Murck, both recent graduates of the Columbus School of Law of the Catholic University of America, are scheduled to start work with FHH immediately after Labor Day. Ron received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University; Patrick received his from American University. Both have taken the Virginia Bar exam and are currently awaiting the results.

The respective backgrounds of Patrick and Ron are strikingly similar in a number of ways, not the least being the levels of excellence each has attained. Both were editors of law school publications, both participated in the National Telecommunications Moot Court competition, both have pre-law school experience in journalism, both have authored numerous articles on various topics related to communications law, and both have worked at the Commission as part of the law school curriculum. Ron served as a Special Assistant to Commissioner Adelstein, and Patrick interned in the Media Bureau.

FHH is confident that you will find Ron and Patrick to be valuable additions to our team. Ron can be reached at whitworth@fhhlaw.com; Patrick can be reached at murck@fhhlaw.com.
